

Name:

Goe Strength: 6D

Hongyou's journey in learning Go began at the Mucha Changching Children's Go Academy. After participating in the humorous and interactive courses led by the teachers and being continuously guided to enjoy thinking, Hongyou developed a great interest in solving tsumego and playing Go.

Between advancing ranks, Hongyou often spent entire nights lying on the floor of his room, tirelessly reviewing games or playing against himself. Furthermore, Hongyou's perseverance was evident as he progressed from playing against AI on tablets to participating in online matches on platforms like Fox Weiqi.

When he reached the 5-dan level, Hongyou began attending advanced classes at the Dongdong Go Academy. Under the guidance of Teacher Zhou Keping, he underwent significant changes in his understanding of Go theory and learning attitude.

He realized that only through effort and self-demand could his Go skills breakthrough. During the pandemic, Hongyou's go ability improved through online classes at the Central Go Academy, and he effectively improved his game content through review sessions.

After reaching 6-dan, Hongyou further refined his skills at the Taiwan Go Academy and underwent intensive training at the Haifeng Go Academy for a year. He then engaged in matches with many skilled players at the Xiaoxiao Lin Go Academy, hoping to continue advancing his Go skills.